Bryan's Great Influence.

Mr. Bryan is entitled not only to the commendation of every fair minded person, but to the gratitude of a reunited Democracy for the stand that he has taken in the campaign. At St. Louis he fought valiantly for Democratic principles and he is responsible for many of the wisest planks in the platform. He did not surrender to the Eastern wing of the party until he found it of no further avail to oppose the nomination of Judge Parker. After the convention had expressed itself, Mr. Bryan came out for the ticket and has done everything in his power since that time to advance its interests. He has placed himself at the disposal of the National Committee and they are sending him into states where he has a large following and where his work is certain to be effective. His speeches in Indiana will do much to offset the campaign of Ton Watson who, posing as a Populist, is striving to draw enough votes from the Democratic ticket to elect Roosevelt. Mr. Bryan is making the strong features of his argument the imperialism of Roosevelt and the encouragement that the Republican party is giving to every increasing power of the trusts.

There are thousands of voters in Indiana and in other debatable states who have only been waiting for Mr. Bryan to declare himself unequivocally for the ticket and the platform to follow his leadership. No man in public life has a greater or a more enthusiastic following than Bryan and the Democracy is fortunate indeed that it has the benefit of his influence and that his potent voice is to be heard in behalf of Parker and Davis.

The trial of Sheriff Holland, of Calloway county, for killing Hardy Keys, has again been postponed at Benton, by the commonwealth on account of the "absence of important witnesses." Since some of the witnesses for the prosecution have been indicted at Paris, Tenn., for attempting to suborn a witness against Holland, the prosecution is not as anxious for trial as it was a while back.

SWEPT BY FLAMES.

Fire Destroys Barn Filled With Fine Tobacco.

A barn filled with fine tobacco belonging to Mr. Charles Fowler, who lives about seven miles north of Hopkinsville road, was destroyed by fire Sunday morning. The weed was being cured and the supposition is that it caught from sparks. The loss on building and contents is about $1,000. There was no insurance. This is the first barn of tobacco burned in Christian county this season.

The loss falls very heavily on Mr. Fowler.

COUNTY UNIONS

Of American Society of Equity to Meet Here Oct. 8.

The American Society of Equity, through its county representative, Mr. F. B. McCown, has issued a request for every local union in Christian and adjoining counties to send representatives to this city next Saturday, Oct. 8, for the purpose of perfecting a better organization. There are now seven or eight unions in this county.

Universalist Convention.

The Universalist State Convention of Kentucky will meet at Charleston on Friday, Oct. 7, at 2 p. m., and continue in session three days. Rev. H. C. Beckett, pastor of the Hopkinsville Universalist church, will preside.

8 Cents

Eight cents a pound is what a young woman paid for twelve pounds of flesh.

She was thin and weak and paid one dollar for a bottle of Scott's Emulsion, and by taking regular doses had gained twelve pounds in weight before the bottle was finished.

Eight cents a pound is cheap for such valuable material. Some pay more, some less, some get nothing for their money. You get your money's worth when you buy Scott's Emulsion.

We will send you a little free.

YOUR HEATER CHANCE!

Just imagine a heater that will produce just as much heat from 14 tons of soft coal, or even slack, as any hard coal heater does with one ton of expensive hard coal.

Imagine the saving, stop to think how quickly this kind of a heater would actually pay for itself. That's just what

Buck's Hot Blast

Will do, will actually pay for itself in a couple of seasons.

INDICTMENTS RETURNED.

Two Parties Tried Last Week and Given Terms.

The grand jury on Saturday returned eight indictments, two of them for murder. The body will remain in session until the latter part of this week.

William Whitfield, col., indicted for stealing a diamond ring from Wm. Oakley, an L. & N. brakeman, was tried at once and given three years in the penitentiary.

John Henry Cole, col., was convicted of stealing nine chickens and the jury gave him fifteen months in the pen. This is the first conviction in this county under the new law making the theft of chickens of the value of $3 or more a felony.

Mack Hern, who shot and killed his father, James Hern, in this city on the night of July 4 last, was indicted for willful murder. John Fleming, col., who killed Dave Bullard, col., in a crap game near Spring Hill pond in South Christian Sept. 25, was also indicted for murder.

HEART DISEASE

Causes Sudden Death of a Woman Near Pilot Rock.

Mrs. Joy White, mother of Mrs. Henry White, of this city, died rather suddenly last Thursday night at her home near Pilot Rock. She was only sick a few days and death was caused from heart trouble. She was 76 years old. The interment took place in the family burying ground, near Kelly, Friday.

The street carnival to be given by the Odd Fellows Oct. 17 is no longer in doubt. The canvass for subscriptions to the guaranty fund has about been completed.

Men's $15.00 Suits!

THE PRIDE OF OUR STORE.

Fifteen Dollar Suits seem to be about the popular price that strikes the average man as being right for a suit of clothes.

Our $15 suits are famous for their quality excess, when compared with the ordinary suits at that price. The same suit at your tailors' would cost you $30.00 or more.

What you get here is good, honest material, stylish clothes, excellent trimmings and a perfect fit. See our $15.00 dress suits and you will understand. You can put one of them right on and we will prove to you that it is a tailor-made garment.

Registration Polls open 6 a. m. to 9 p. m. to-day.

The Louisville Horse Show is the whole thing this week.

George Kerr, the once noted cartoonist of Louisville, died last week in a soldier's home.

John Pound, a wealthy business man, has been elected Lord Mayor of London.

Secretary John Hay is to remain in the cabinet in the event Roosevelt should be re-elected.

Postmaster General Henry C. Payne is critically ill. High living at Washington makes it dangerous to be a statesman nowadays.

Suppose we let up on Bill Thorne for a while and talk about something else. There have been many pardons issued in Kentucky, nearly all of them bad ones.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt died very suddenly Saturday at Oxford, England. He was called in England "The finest political gladiator of his age." He retired from public life last March.

The Democratic campaign was opened yesterday in many counties and from now on there will be firing from the stump all along the line. The campaign will be short, sharp and decisive and Kentucky may be expected to roll up an old-time Democratic majority.

Tennessee proposes to test the power of a state to suppress a trust in its borders. In the Gallatin circuit court a verdict was rendered against the Standard Oil Company and its agent, C. E. Holt, that will result in an early and crucial test of House Bill No. 65 of the last legislature, generally known as the anti-trust bill. The result of the verdict may go even farther than that, for unless the Supreme Court of the State declares House Bill No. 65 unconstitutional the case will likely go to the Supreme Court of United States, where it will be determined whether or not a State may enact anti-trust laws governing the sale of trust goods, and the manner of doing business by trusts, or whether the State is powerless because of the regulations and rules governing interstate commerce.
